ORDER:

Consequent on the remodelling of the course of training at the Indian Veterinary Research Institute, Izatnagar and Mukteswar the period of Post-Graduate Refresher Course in Veterinary Science has been extended from three to six months with the result the above course will be completed only in October instead of July. The Director of Animal Husbandry has reported that on account of the above change, Messrs. Bashir Ahmed Shiraji and C.K. Subbu Singh, probationary District Veterinary Officers deputed to undergo training in the Advanced course in Animal Husbandry on completion of the Post-Graduate Refresher course in Veterinary Science, will not be able to join the former course from its commencement in August 1950, and has suggested that they may be directed to join the course in October 1950; ~~and has suggested that they may be directed~~ (after completing the Post-graduate course in Veterinary Science) and attend the rest of the course.

2. The Government accept the suggestion of the Director of Animal Husbandry and direct that on completion of the Post-graduate Course in Veterinary Science in October 1950 Messrs Bashir Ahmed Shiraji and C.K. Subbu Singh be asked to join the Advanced Course in Animal Husbandry and attend the rest of the course.

3. The Director of Animal Husbandry is also requested to submit proposals for amending the Special Rules for the Madras Animal Husbandry Service.

(By order of His Excellency the Governor).
